

Chapter Communicator

April 13, 2020

Dear Connecticut Chapter Members,

We know what you're going through..., because we're going through it with you. You are not alone!

Back in Management 101 we learned that to find the weak points in any system, you STRESS it. This is our test, and because we are professionals, we may bend, but we will not break.

Have faith in yourself and the teams you have built in your facilities and in your organizations. We'll get through this together!

Sincerely,

Your Connecticut Chapter Officers and Directors
